Regarding your letter of April 23, 1991 concerning Richard Lloyd Dilley.

After some research we have found that the King County Court Clerk has the records if needed. Richard Dilley was sentenced to a 9 year prison term. There was no newspaper article regarding his sentencing.

Hope this is sufficient.

SUBJECT: RICHARD LLOYD DILLEY

Dear Dean:

Thank you for all the material you recently sent concerning the above named individual. This is most helpful to our file, and certainly will prevent him from registering in the future.

We contacted the Transatlantic Council related to this matter. We do find that Mr. Dilley was registered with Troop 347, in Athens, Greece as an Assistant Scoutmaster and Committee Member from December 1981 through February 1984. His wife was also registered as a Committee Member during 1983.

The council could not get any information on his discharge. The military indicated that if he had received a dishonorable discharge, he would have been automatically entered on the F.B.I. listing. This is all the material they had.

We do appreciate all your work and hope this can be settled soon, so that you no longer have a problem with it. We have never received any information on this individual prior to your information coming to us. We would like the outcome of the legal action in your council, once it is completed.

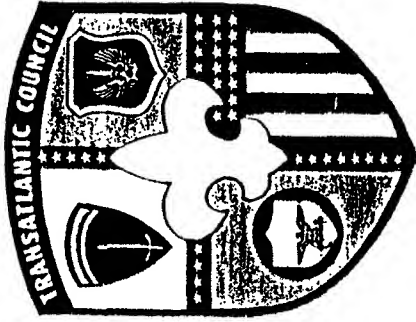

Thanks so much for your help. We will refuse any registration that comes to us from anywhere in the country in the future.

Sincerely,

Paul Ernst, Director

SUBJECT: RICHARD LLOYD DILLEY

Dear Bob:

The above named individual has recently surfaced in Seattle, WA. He has been arrested for child sexual abuse. He had sexual relations with some fourteen and fifteen year old youth members who have been involved in Scouting.

The newspapers have been playing havoc with us in that they have discovered that Mr. Dilley was discharged from the Navy in 1983. This discharge was dishonorable and it was indicated in newspaper articles that he had sexual contact with boys at that time. This all occurred while he was a Scoutmaster in Greece.

We do not have any information in our file related to this individual. I wondered if you could do some checking and determine whether or not Mr. Dilley was registered as a Scoutmaster in Greece during the years of 1980, 1981, or 1982, before his discharge in 1983.

Any information you can give me would be most helpful in protecting the Boy Scouts of America.

Thanks for your help.

'Sterling' Scout leader charged with rape of boy

by Richard Seven
Times staff reporter

Richard L. Dillesey seemed too good to be true. He was the leader of a resurgent Boy Scout troop, a foster parent and a respected member of the Mormon Church in Burton.

But today he was to be arraigned in King County Superior Court on a charge of third-degree third-degree molestation involving rape of a child and five counts of ing two boys he met in the church's Scouting program. "To many people who knew him and his family, this is all shock and disbelief," said Dr. Sterling Hill, regional spokesman for the church. "He did considerable work and was well regarded by everyone."

Dillesey, 31, served as scoutmaster and coach for the church between 1986 and 1989 before he switched to teaching church doctrine to the elderly last year, said

Hill. He remained a member of the Scouting committee. King County Deputy Prosecutor Scott Peterson said it doesn't appear Dillesey has a criminal record. But Dillesey has told authorities he was dishonorably discharged from the Navy in 1983 after having sexual contact with boys while a scoutmaster in Greece, said King County police Detective Susan Tucker.

Since last year, Dillesey has been a licensed foster parent and he is father to an adopted child, said police. At one time his house in the Burton area held five children, ages 1 to 8, but only two young girls were still living there when charges were filed Monday. The two girls since have been removed from the home.

Frank Mendizabal, spokesman for the state Department of Social and Health Services, said the agency checks an applicant's criminal history but not military service or the type of discharge.

"He showed no criminal history so he was given a license," said Mendizabal. "He had sterling recommendations and nothing to indicate a red flag or warning."

Peterson called Dillesey a "kind of Pied Piper" who put a lot of energy into activities for children and drew them to him with his ebullient personality.

Jail plan would isolate AIDS inmates chairs. Other elements of his proposed ordinance also were criticized by other county officials.

Pullen said jail workers want those infected with AIDS to be identified and segregated. But he said it might only be necessary to provide separate housing for those who have violent tendencies, to avoid exposure to blood that might be spilled in an assault.

Pullen said there will be disagreement about the need to provide separate housing for AIDS patients in the jail, but added, "I'm flexible."

Arthur Wallenstein, the county's new jail director, said all violent prisoners are segregated now to protect employees and inmates.

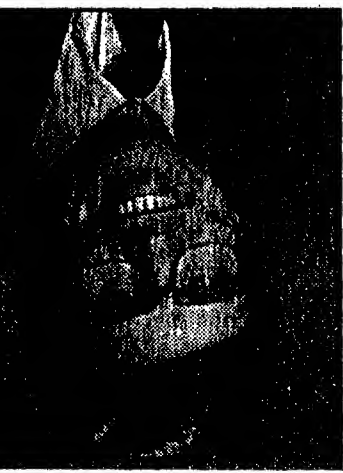

Wallenstein told reporters later that evolving

King County Councilman Kent Pullen has begun to soften his stand on legislation he drafted to require segregation of county jail inmates suffering from AIDS.

Pullen called for segregation of inmates with serious communicable diseases in jail-reform legislation he introduced recently. But yesterday he said that perhaps only violent offenders suffering from acquired immune deficiency syndrome would need separate quarters.

He changed his position as fellow council members and council staff raised questions

We reserve the right to refuse registration whenever there is a concern that an individual may not meet the high standards of membership which the BSA seeks to provide for American youth.

If you wish to have this decision reviewed by a BSA regional review committee, please write to the regional director within 60 days of the date of this letter, explaining your version of the facts supporting your claim that your registration as a BSA member should be reinstated. Bid to free suspect in slayings of three on Bainbridge Island

P-I Staff

Attorneys for a man charged with last year's slayings of three young people on Bainbridge Island asked yesterday for a dismissal of the charges based on "governmental misconduct."

A hearing on the motion is scheduled to resume today, said Eric Lind, attorney for Douglas Stanfield.

Stanfield is accused of the March 17, 1989, killing of Ty McCollough, 19, JayDee Phillips, 23, and Ann Rice, 19. The three were killed by gunshots as they sat in a pickup truck in a remote area near Port Blakely.

Lind said the Kitsap County prosecutor's office committed numerous violations in preparation for the trial, which is set to begin next week.

For example, he said, the prosecution submitted a list of 37 witnesses last Tuesday and another 10 yesterday, not giving the defense enough time to prepare for them.

Attorneys for the prosecution could not be reached for comment.

The defense has also asked the Kitsap County Superior Court to make the prosecutor's office pay $6,000 for added legal fees in the event the motion for dismissal is denied.

Lind previously had asked the court to dismiss the charges against Stanfield saying the sheriff's and prosecutor's offices had leaked too much information to the media. That motion, filed in March, was denied.

Stanfield first became a suspect in November 1989, a few days after he contacted Kitsap County authorities to offer evidence in the case.

Three die in collision; road traffic delayed

A fiery head-on collision yesterday morning claimed the lives of three people and closed a portion of State Route 18 for three hours, the Washington State Patrol said.

The victims were identified as Rodney Givens, 22, of Kennewick; Lorraine M. Howell, 21, of Tacoma, a passenger in his car; and Billy Bailey, 51, of Puyallup.

Bailey was eastbound on the highway when his pickup truck was struck by the car driven by Givens, who apparently crossed the center line, according to the Washington State Patrol.

Both vehicles burst into flames and all three victims were pronounced dead at the scene of the accident, a patrol spokeswoman said.

The accident closed traffic on State Route 18 between Interstate 5 and Hobart Road, the spokeswoman said.

Boy Scout leader charged

The leader of a Burien-area Boy Scout troop sponsored by the Mormon Church was charged with third-degree child rape yesterday in King County Superior Court.

Bail was set at $25,000 for Richard Lloyd Dilley, 31, who remained in the county jail last night.

Dilley was arrested last Wednesday after a two-week investigation by King County special assault detectives.

The investigation began after a member of Dilley's scout troop told his parents about acts of child molestation and rape over the past two years, police said.

Tony Burt, King County police spokesman, said the investigation is trying to determine if there are more potential victims.

New chief for parks in county

A senior King County official has been named manager of the county's Natural Resources and Parks Division.

Barbara Wright, deputy director of the department that oversees parks, will be responsible for the 250-employee division.

The agency provides park and recreation services and manages 9,500 acres of natural areas.

The appointment, made by Executive Tim Hill, is effective tomorrow.

Before joining King County government 18 months ago, Wright served as director of Omaha Parks and Recreation.

In her new post, Wright said she will emphasize interpretative nature programs and building a strong network of volunteers.

He sexually molested boy scouts who were entrusted in his care. He was dishonorably discharged from the Navy for a similar incident in Greece several years ago. Dilley has admitted his urges are difficult to control and he can't explain. He also wrote letters to a victim and witnesses asking them to tell him if they notify the authorities so that he could disappear. He said he "would not stick around to drag you and my family through the mud." Dilley is an accomplished woodman and could survive in the woods should it become necessary.

Mr. Robert W. Zadina
Scout Executive

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

SUBJECT: RICHARD LLOYD DILLEY

Dear Bob:

The above named individual has recently surfaced in Seattle, WA. He has been arrested for child sexual abuse. He had sexual relations with some fourteen and fifteen year old youth members who have been involved in Scouting.

The newspapers have been playing havoc with us in that they have discovered that Mr. Dilley was discharged from the Navy in 1983. This discharge was dishonorable and it was indicated in newspaper articles that he had sexual contact with boys at that time. This all occurred while he was a Scoutmaster in Greece.

We do not have any information in our file related to this individual. I wondered if you could do some checking and determine whether or not Mr. Dilley was registered as a Scoutmaster in Greece during the years of 1980, 1981, or 1982, before his discharge in 1983.

Any information you can give me would be most helpful in protecting the Boy Scouts of America.

Thanks for your help.

Sincerely,

Added to IV file

troop through the Mormon church in Burien. During that time, the staff had seen Dillley molested at least three of the scouts in his troop. Victim [REDACTED] said that on several occasions, Dillley performed oral sex on him. He also said that Dillley masturbated him about 40-60 times. [REDACTED] said that on several occasions, Dillley also masturbated him. Dillley also had both boys touch his penis. Dillley told the boys that they did not need to be afraid because this behavior was one which could be controlled. When initially confronted about this by the victim, Dillley said he would not go to counseling, and he wouldn't come to. Dillley gave a taped statement to Det. Tucker admitting to touching [REDACTED] and also said he molested another boy.

These incidents occurred on either scout troop camp once or overnights at Dillley's residence which is in King County.
